LEOPARD

Dan R. Ellett

Dedication

This annual we humbly dedicate to BURTON C. McCARLEY, grade school principal of the Colbert Public Schools. It was due to his guidance and encouragement while we were in grade school that inspired us to enroll in high school and finally to reach the junior and senior classes. May he continue to serve the youth of the Colbert community for many years to come.

Superintendent's Message

Dear Patrons, Students, and Friends:

I am grateful for a kind and benevolent providence which has brought us safely to this, our yearly edition of "The Leopard". Many and complex are the ingredients which help to create a favorable climate in which students can be enabled to learn and to live. I believe that at least four major areas are vitally necessary to our success. They are: teaching, learning, testing, and guidance. We are especially proud of our testing program which we have begun this year; and we are happy because of the response the parents have given in our conferences with them concerning the welfare of our students. This, we think, is guidance in it's finest form.

May I close with an earnest and sincere wish for the health, happiness, and success of each of you.

Arling Cordell, Supt.
